Willard Warner, of Alabama, Delivered in the Senate of the United States, March 3, 1871 Constriicliou 1860 to 1871.The Senate having under consideration the following amendment, proposed by Mr. Wauner, to the joint resolution (li. R.No. 521) repeals the duly on coal: And that all political disabilities imposed by law or by the Constitution of the United States upon citizens of the United States on account of rebellion are hereby removed Mr. Warner said: Mr. Presidext: He who would approach the discussion or treatment of a great question of Government, involving the welfare of a large portion of the people, in a purely partisan spirit or with any other intent than to state the truth as he sees it, and to act as his best judgment and conscience dictate, is unworthy to be a citizen of a free country, much less to be an American Senator. I hold my allegiance to truth and country far above my obligation to party. I support and act with a great political party, because that party is an instrumentality through which I can serve my country and humanity. Seventeen years ago I aided in organizing the Republican party, as an agency through which might be wrought out certain great and noble ends, foremost among which were the immediate limitation and ultimate eradication of human slavery in this country. It became in the hands of Providence the instrumentality through which a gigantic rebellion, inaugurated to sustain and perpetuate slavery through a division of the country, was crushed, the territorial integrity of the Republic maintained, and the equality of rights of men established. And...
