Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wickedly funny and unabashedly smartass, Annie will rock your world. She has got a mouth on her. If the boys can say it by golly, so can she. Don t matter where you come from, by the time you finish this book, yore liable to be talkin like a cowhand and walkin bowlegged. An Amazon UK Top 100 Bestseller. Love cowboys? We got em with twist! Shots erupt. Annie is stuck in a crossfire. Cowpunchin turns to adventure. Good lookin men come out in force and laughter abounds if only the dry gulchers would stop trying to kill them all. [Following is the official review of On the Rocks by Barbara Neville.] On the Rocks is a.Western set in an intriguing. The greatest strength of this book is its narrator, Roxanne Rockefeller, a profane, feisty cowgirl. Neville has created a genuinely fresh and well-developed character in Roxanne, a young woman who rides out in her best riding finery, complete with guns, a knife. and grenades. Early in the book, when it seems that Roxanne is a bit too...
