Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Recollections of an Equestrian Manager They are written in almost the same order in which the memories themselves have recurred to mind in moments of leisure; and that those moments are not too plentiful, must be some excuse for shortcomings. The aim of the equestrian performer is to amuse and to interest, and that is all: while the actor goes far beyond this; at one moment splitting our sides with mirth, at another reading us a moral lesson, and at another harrowing our souls with the dread outpourings of the tragic muse. To no such heights as these does the equestrian aspire. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
