Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The volume of 15 Choral Pieces was composed between the autumn of 2013 and the spring of 2014 while my mum made an operation in hospital and had a treatment in home. The composition has been feeling in fragility of human s body, so broad of God s space and also thanksgiving unlimited love of FOR GOD SO LOVED THE WORLD, feedback parents formidable Journey for training and education, from what I have touched the heart and have been writing coherently. I used to study composition in England for 6 years and went to the local churches every Sunday morning during that time before becoming a Christian. I had been always touched when listened to some high quality performance of choir music and repeatedly aftertaste many times for some choir performance, so as to realized that only be touched by the singing sound during the church activities we can more deeply understand God s Decree. The season why we can be touched should come from the composing and performing quality and also the deductive level. All the observation...
