LABOUR MANAGED MARKET ECONOMIES

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 1993. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xxiv+350pp In fact, workers' management clearly postulates full economic autonomy for the enterprise. The only way in which its success or failure can properly be evaluated is through the free exchange, in competition on an equal footing with other producers, of the goods and services provides the only objective standard of performance. A competitive market is, therefore, an essential element for the practical operation of the system, even though it is...
