

Nine Rabbits (Paperback)

By Virginia Zaharieva

Black Balloon Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Zaharieva packs several genres into one, including but not limited to pastoral idyll, sexual coming-of-age story, and feminist memoir. Ultimately, she presents life in all its messiness and possibility, vivid enough for the reader to almost taste. Publishers Weekly This is powerful, controlled writing. Rain Taxi Characters are portrayed in a stark light exposing their neediness, their unflattering traits, and, as the novel progresses, their hard-fought wisdom. . . It s rare for me to recommend a novel on the strength of its wisdom, but time and again I found myself nodding appreciably as Manda moves towards a uniquely feminine Zen understanding of herself. Heavy Feather Review A remarkable, untraditional novel about a universal story: one woman s quest to createand maintainher own identity Told through a series of beautifully written short chapters, Nine Rabbits is a moving tale of one woman s struggle to identify not as one part of herself, but as a whole, complex being. While the novel certainly addresses some heavy topics, Zaharieva moves through each scene with the ease of an old friend sharing stories...
