This is one of our very best schools. a: .d bids fair to be one of the largest. The children have taken just pride in the building and the best of discipline has prevailed throughout. In class rooms and hall appointments it is unsurpassed. All pupils of Seventh and Eighth grades living in West Duluth have attended this building. When those of these grades are transferred to the Oneota and Fairmount it may make some difference in the size of the upper rooms, though it will not take long before this district will have pupils enough of these grades to fill the room. The amount expended for supplies, etc., for this building has been somewhat more than that of the other twelve-room structures, due probably to the fact that it was supplied with apparatus, etc., for the...
