Silk Cocoons.--The culture and manufacture of silk, like many productions of nature and art, are difficult to trace from their origin. All that we know concerning them is, that they have come to us. from the East in a state of comparative perfection. It seems to have been in Asia that silk was first known, and was called Serica, from the name of the country in which its use was supposed to have been discovered. The Chinese claim to have manufactured this delicate luxury as early ag 2,700 years before the Christian era, at which time their attention was first attracted to the operations of the silk worm on wild mulberry trees. It was soon after found that they thrived much better in rooms than in the open air, and...
