This item is printed on demand - Print on Demand Neuware - Research Paper (Pre-University) from the year 2005 in the subject English - Applied Geography, grade: 2-/10P., , language: English, abstract: When on November 2nd in the year 2004 the world's single left super-power's citizens went to choose between incumbent George W. Bush and his challenger John F. Kerry to become the nation's next president, the whole planet glanced excitedly at their TV in order to be informed as soon as possible about whom of the two would be the one to lead the United States of America in the forthcoming four years. Too much had been happening between 2000 and 2004, during the first period of the Bush administration in power. Events like the terror attacks on September 11th 2001, the resultant Afghanistan war and so-called war on terror and of course most importantly the invasion of Iraq which began in march 2003 and was suspected not to be waged due to the existence of Saddam's mysterious weapons of mass destruction, but much more likely because of the country's extensive...
