No sooner than they arrive, Mik begins to question the red-eyed silver dragon amulet he was given as a child. People have tried to take it from him and others have warned him of its deadly powers. Mik soon finds out that his amulet is linked to an ancient tribe who created the amulet in order to keep the silver dragon Ungura locked away after it seized every ounce of magic from the kingdom. As Mik is thrown into a world of magic and danger, Jace has been given the chance to prove to his mother that he can survive in the real world and become the same great soldier his late father was.
